

Dartfish Express Wins Tabby Award in Sport and Fitness Category

Press Release: Dartfish – Tue, Aug 27, 2013 6:00 AM EDT

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--

The Tabby Awards, the only worldwide competition for best tablet apps for consumers, announced the winners of its first competition in 24 categories. In association with the Application Developers Alliance, a panel of 17 tablet professionals selected 24 iPad and Android apps from a field of 60 finalists. Dartfish Express was selected the best app in Sport and Fitness.

"This winners' list shows developers are creatively leveraging the tablet and building software that re-imagines the way we interact with information," said Ravi Bhatt, CEO of BranchFire and chair of the judging panel. "The Tabby Awards are about celebrating that innovation."

Dartfish Express, used with iOS devices, is the ideal video mobile coaching tool for all sports, designed to help coaches and athletes improve their performance. Coaches and athletes can video a performance and then analyze it to validate correct performance or to correct errors. Dartfish Express makes it possible to execute very detailed analysis of each performance, working toward perfecting of skills.

"We are very proud of this accomplishment. All of the apps submitted were of quality, recognized as the best apps in the world, so to be chosen as #1 in Sport and Fitness is a sign of the qualitative work the Dartfish team is doing on a daily basis," stated Victor Bergonzoli, Dartfish CEO.
